

COUNTY NEWS

MIAMI

Fayette Young shipped a load of fine hogs to St. Louis on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Ione Rogers of Marshall is visiting the family of Mr. John Millsaps.

Mrs. Luke Dorson and children who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Ayres returned Sunday to their home in Orrick, Mo.

Miss Mamie Grady very charmingly entertained her house party guests with a picnic at Rice's Springs on Monday evening.

The following teachers from Miami attended the school institution in Marshall on Wednesday and Thursday, Prof. C. Hitchborn and G. W. Carten, Misses Annie Clemmings, Flossie Bishop, Mamie Grady, Velma Minor, Juanita Wallen and Flossie Haynie.

Mrs. Dan O'Brien and daughter, Elith returned to Marshall last week after visiting Mrs. Martin Hudson and many other relatives and friends near Miami.

Mrs. W. E. Wells and little daughter Mary Elizabeth of Kansas City have been the guests of Mrs. Robt. Haynie this week. They returned Friday and are visiting the family of Mr. John Miller.

A. P. Bishop has been quite poorly from heat prostration and has missed a few days from his place of business this week.

Miss Bessie Webb is expected home this week from Brookfield, Mo., where she has been for quite a long visit to her friend Mrs. Will Needles.

R. C. Shobe has secured several of the government contracts for improvements of the Missouri river at this point. He is also interested in the Steam boat G. R. Wells which has been employed on the river at Miami.

Master Carroll Wright who has been in the west for several months has returned to his parents home Miami.

Mrs. Martin Hudson took some of her Marshall guests to their home last week and brought home with her Mrs. J. H. Noonon, her mother for a visit.

Will Utz is entertaining some relatives from Pratt, Virginia.

Miss Ermin Taylor entertained several of her young lady and gentlemen friends at her home on Tuesday evening.

Willie Hoover, a former Miami boy is here from York, Neb. He is glad to see his Miami friends but will soon bid them good bye and return to his western home.

The watermelon that has so long been "smiling on the vine" has been plucked and brought to town for sale and many a "little Johnnie" is spending his pennies to buy one. He eats and smacks and says "tis fine." He nibbles it down to the green old rind.

He heeds not his father who says beware! Nor his mother who says Johnny, take care! But when night comes on he fairly quakes With curious cramps and awful aches.

MT. LEONARD.

Quite a large number of our people attended the Lafayette county fair this week at Higginsville.

Mr. Gall returned home from Kansas City Tuesday night where he has been in the hospital. He seems very much improved.

Little Mary Jones is visiting her grandmother in Slater at present.

B. F. Henshaw came in Friday and checked out our station agent Miss Minnie Hockensmith and installed Mr. Taylor who will fill her place. Miss Minnie leaves this week for an extended western trip to be gone some time.

Mr. James Swinney and son Matt Mrs. Elmer Platt and Miss Minnie Hockensmith drove to Marshall Saturday.

Mrs. Maggie Keenen of Kansas City came down Thursday for a visit with relatives here.

Jake Weaver, wife and daughter of Miami were guests last week of A. B. Cort and family.

P. L. Sutherland and wife of Mexico, Mo., were Sunday guests of relatives here.

Miss Stella Young of Grand Pass is the guest of Miss Tressa Gall.

Arthur Oquest, wife and baby of Marshall were Sunday guests of Mr. Oquest's parents.

Mrs. Potter and children of Malta Bend were visiting relatives in town Saturday.

F. S. Ousterhout has purchased the building formerly occupied by Goodwin & Fletcher as a store room and has opened up a blacksmith shop.

Geo. Long of Fairville came up in his auto and visited with Tom Smith and family Saturday and Sunday.

Tom Smith shipped some fine hogs to Kansas City Monday.

Mrs. Tom Smith was on the sick list the first of the week.

Mrs. Dowden will leave this week for an extended visit with her daughter Mrs. Mark Lewis at Spokane, Washington.

MALTA BEND

Miss Ellis Coleman is the guest of her grandparents this week.

Geo. Dowdy and family were the guests of relatives in Miami last week.

Fred Bradshaw and wife returned home Friday from a visit in Silver Lake, Kansas.

Mrs. Sam VanStone of Slater is spending a few days with her relatives here.

Ernest Hisle of Miami attended the ball game here Friday.

Miss Dean Bailey and her guest Miss Anna Baskin dined with Miss Maud Burns Thursday at the home of Mrs. G. A. Renick.

Clarence Hopkins and wife of Warrensburg are the guests of friends this week.

Tracy Davis of Waverly was calling on friends Sunday.

Miss Anna Stockman returned home Saturday from Warrensburg where she has been attending the Normal since June.

Thomas Malter and daughter Miss Esta were guests of Mrs. C. W. Schooley over Sunday.

Mrs. Nannie Bailey is visiting her daughter Mrs. M. H. VanAnglen in Waverly this week.

A very interesting ball game was played on Friday, Lexington vs. Malta Bend. The Lexington boys were defeated in a score of 7 to 8.

Mrs. V. M. Bradshaw is visiting her children in Silver Lake, Kansas, this week.

Miss Isabelle Rader of Jefferson City is the guest of her aunt Mrs. C. F. Yancey.

Frank Utz of the county seat was visiting friends here last week.

Don't forget the Chautauqua at Marshall Aug. 30 to Sept. 5.

Miss Edna Shepard of Blackburn is visiting Miss Lucille Long.

Miss Maurine Gaudin was the guest of her uncle H. I. Blosser and family last Friday.

Prof. A. H. Monsees and wife are spending this week with A. H. Ransberger at Mt. Leonard.

Miss Alva Bryan of Marshall is the guest of her grandma Mrs. Hanna Bryan.

The Sunday school of the Christian church held their annual picnic on Tuesday Aug. 24, at Renick Lake. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

Shake Into Your Shoes.

Allen's Foot Ease, a powder, it cures painful, smarting, nervous feet and ingrowing nails, and instantly takes the sting out of corns and bunions. It's the greatest comfort discovery of the age. Allen's Foot Ease makes tight or new shoes feel easy. It is a certain cure for aching, callous, swollen, tired, itching feet. Try it to-day. Sold by all Druggists and Shoe Stores. By mail for 25c in stamps. Don't accept any substitute. Trial package free. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

NEW FRANKFORT

Mrs. Henry Gabb left Thursday for St. Louis to visit her brother who is quite sick.

Florence Jones of Slater is visiting her Uncle T. Sydenstricker.

Jake Wehinger and bride of Kansas City visited the grooms parents a few days the past week.

Miss Carrie Seet of Ayers visited Lula Jackson over Sunday.

Jake Kapellar a former Missouri boy but who has been in the West for a number of years came in on a short stay. Jake speaks favorably of the west and intends to return soon.

L. Reischer visited E. Wengler in Glasgow Sunday.

Wm. Suppe and family left Tuesday for Corder where they will make their future home.

Word was received here that Mrs. Arbogast formerly of Dalton, Mo., and who was well known here had died at her home in Oklahoma Thursday. Her sister Mrs. G. E. Wilming of this place arrived at her bedside before her death. Burial took place Saturday.

Mrs. J. B. Crumbaugh's sisters of Leroy, Ill., are here on a visit.

A series of meetings began at Good Hope Sunday evening and will continue throughout the next 10 days.

A crowd went to Graves Creek fishing Tuesday. They report having caught plenty of fish and said they fried fish until they grew tired.

Mrs. Milback and father-in-law of Ill., are here on a visit to her parents.

SHACKELFORD

John McDonough is improving his home by the addition of two new rooms and a porch.

Six of Frank Castles children are down with typhoid malaria. They are under the care of Dr. W. B. Wingfield.

Miss Mabel Wilson who has been making her home in Lodi, California for several years was the guest of Mrs. Alice Cooper the first of the week.

Wm. Lynch came over from Sedalia and spent Saturday and Sunday with his wife and babies who are visiting at the home of Joseph Hamil.

Ben and Chas Winslow have returned from a two weeks stay at Eldorado Springs.

Mrs. Grimes of Slater is visiting her daughter Mrs. D. W. Becraft. Mrs. Harriet Thompson has returned home after a visit to Marshall friends.

Quite a number from here have been attending the revival services at Salt Springs conducted by Revs. Senneff and Garrett.

Mrs. Duncan is down from Kansas City superintending a new barn which is being erected on her farm.

Miss Georgia Curtiss came down from Blackburn Sunday to join a crowd of young folks and attend the basker dinner at Salt Springs. She was a guest of Mrs. Mark Cooper.

Rev. Steinheimer of Marshall was a Sunday guest of Mr. Krumstick.

Mrs. Carico and daughter of Wichita Falls Texas are visiting at the home of her brother Mike Thompson and family.

Mrs. Lester Hutcherson, Mrs. Chas. Hume and Mrs. Chas. Thompson were Marshall visitors Saturday.

Chas. Barr and Mike Thompson left Monday for a two weeks visit at Norman, Oklahoma.

Waverly T. Utz a former Shackelford boy but now with the engineering department of the N. C. R. Co. Wash., wrote that he registered for claims in all three reservations but came out at the little end of the horn but he hasn't lost hope as the Yakama lands would be open to settlement in a year.

SALINE POINT

Plenty of shade and fresh air is greatly appreciated at present.

Corn is beginning to burn considerably on account of the dry weather.

Plowing for wheat will be prolonged, the ground being so dry and hard.

Threshing has been over with for several days in this community.

Mrs. Hanna Witt is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Will Campbell, in Iowa.

Chas. Lynn and wife, Frances Moore and J. W. Mayfield visited the latter's sister Mrs. Will Davis in Livingston county from Friday till Monday.

W. A. Burnside and son Joe left Thursday for a visit in Iowa and Kansas City.

Tom Sullivan Sr., was in this community last week buying apples.

A. W. Hutton was removed to his daughters in Slater Monday.

ROSE VALLEY

Rev. W. S. Trader of Warrensburg is holding protracted meeting at Christian Union began Aug. 15. Every body is cordially invited to attend.

Floyd Hall who has been spending the summer with his uncle B. F. Hall and wife returned to his home in Slater Sunday accompanied by his sister Nana who has been visiting the past two weeks.

Mrs. Sam Rothrock and children spent Monday with her parents Mr. Uriah Mayse and family.

We note that the majority of farmers and families in this vicinity are arranging their work so that they may take time to attend several sessions of the great Chautauqua which is close at hand.

Luther Treece and wife spent Sunday with Harry Jackson and wife.

Everett Chambers and wife spent several days with their uncle P. L. Aldridge and family of Cretcher.

Arthur Mayse made his regular trip to New Home Sunday.

B. F. Hall and wife spent Sunday with P. L. Aldridge and family.

A. J. Robbins was shopping in Sweet Springs Tuesday.

We are having cooler weather at this writing but are peeding rain very bad.

B. F. Hall and wife were the guest of the latter's parents W. M. Cox and family of Cretcher neighborhood Tuesday.

The farmer boys encampment begins at Sweet Springs Wednesday Aug. 25 and lasts until Aug. 28. Several of the boys in our vicinity are preparing to attend.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

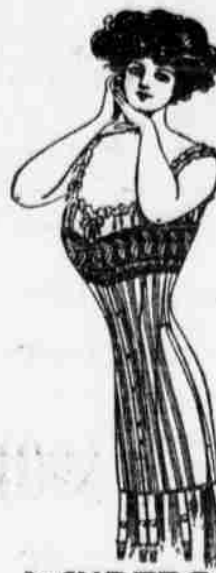

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Ladies' Furnishings,

White's

East Side Square,
Marshall, Mo.
Phone 85

Everything New and Up-to-Date.

HENDERSON Fashion Form Corsets

We are showing some beautiful Fall Suits and Skirts. Each day brings in the new goods all carefully selected from the New York tailors. The most exquisite creations are none too good for our Saline County patrons, who have enabled us by their liberal support to make this more of a CITY STORE each season. We ask you to come and examine these new garments feeling confident they will please you.

Expense Not Considered

when we went East this season to locate all the best and most correct articles of dress for Ladies, Misses, Children and Infants and added them to our stock for fall and winter wear. You will see only new things in our immense collection.

KOPING

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shackelford report a new girl at their home near Koping.

Geo. Jenkins and Miss Mabel Brockman of near Koping made a trip to Sedalia last Tuesday.

The weather is very hot and dry and the crops need rain very bad.

John Case of Arrow Rock has returned home from a visit to D. A. Kelley and family.

George Jenkins and Miss Mabel Brockman called on Miss Essie Kelley last Monday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Scott entertained the following ones last Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jacobi, D. A. Kelley and family and Willis Brockman. All report a good time.

Miss Essie Kelley and Miss Mabel Brockman were attending the cut price sale at Koping last Monday.

NAPTON

John Ballinger and Ernest Nicely left Friday for a visit with relatives in Burden, Kansas.

June Wood was a passenger to Marshall Monday morning.

Mrs. Emmett Smith and children are visiting Mrs. Smith's sister at Mobeetie, Texas.

Misses Lulu and Virgie Thorp, of Nelson are visiting Miss Velma Thorp this week.

John Morris who is firing on the Mo. Pacific came in Saturday evening for a short visit with home-folks.

S. H. Stewart is running the depot during the absence of F. Kendall the regular agent.

W. E. Shackelford went to Marshall Sunday and returned Monday.

Miss Sarah Wilkerson and mother were shopping here Saturday.

The Napton Woodmen carried off a big share of the prizes at the Wilton Springs picnic.

Joseph Ritchey who is going to teach the Napton school the coming term was a visitor Friday.

Will Eatham and wife were shopping here Monday.

Celie Durrett shipped cattle, hogs and sheep from Napton Tuesday.

Rev. Wright of Fayette preached at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Lurline Thorp is assisting in the Shackelford store this week.

Miss Janie Hogge of Arrow Rock is visiting Miss Velma Thorp this week.

L. D. Murrell spent Monday night in Napton.

ARROW ROCK

Charles Janneck was driving on our streets Tuesday.

Lud Kincheloe, wife and son D. of Ohio, Mo. arrived August 16 for a visit with relatives.

Miss Verna Heuman and brother and little sister of the county were in town Wednesday.

Miss Jennie Grant of Hardeman was on our streets Tuesday.

Elmer Green visited Friday with Ray Shemwell.

Miss Julia Watts had a very pleasant social at her home here Tuesday evening in honor of her cousin Misses Bessie and Mary Odell of Clay Center. The following young people were present, Misses Ruth Shemwell, Cora Kuhn, Bessie Bingham, Sue Ficher Leora Edwards, Ruth Piper, Lillian Reynolds and Messrs. Claude Wells, Sam Fisher, Ralph Shemwell, Earl Martin Huston, Townsend.

Mrs. Anna McMahan will have an auction of her household goods on Saturday afternoon Aug. 28.

Dave Nixon of Longwood was a guest of his brother John Nixon last week.

Mrs. Jim Davis and little daughter of Kansas City were visitors last week at the home of John McGuffin.

Dr. Bradshaw left Tuesday for a visit with his mother in Kansas.

Misses Bertha and Neva Townsend were in town Wednesday.

Walter Diggs of Cooper county passed through town Wednesday to attend the sale of W. T. Diggs.

Mrs. S. E. Fisher and the following young people spent Wednesday at Choteau Springs, Misses Sue Fisher, Lillian Reynolds, Ruth Piper and Earl Brockway and Sam Fisher.

Mrs. Andrew Davis of North Hardeman and daughters, Misses Minnie and Martha were dinner guests Wednesday at Dr. McGuffin's.

Messadames Gus Boller and Sophia Bromer of Boonville spent the day Tuesday with Mrs. Henry Prenchler.

The sale Wednesday of W. T. Diggs was well attended and most everything sold well.

Mrs. John Crutcher and sons after a visit of two weeks with relatives left Thursday for their home in Jefferson City.

Mrs. McCarty and daughter Miss Nora of Cooper county were shoppers in town Wednesday.

Evert Childers and family of near Estil, Mo., visited relatives here the first of the week.

George Watts returned to his home in Kansas City Wednesday.

Albert Hoy went to Marshall on Thursday to visit his father A. B.

Hoy for a few days.

Ed Moehele was quite sick a part of last week.

Watson Diggs returned last Friday from a trip to Old Mexico. He is very much pleased with that climate and thinks of spending the winter there.

Rev. Leible filled his regular appointment at the German Evangelical church Sunday morning.

We understand that quite a number in our community are making preparation to attend the Marshall Chautauqua this season. The lectures will be very interesting as well as instructive.

Charles Nixon and wife and Miss Ethel Karriek were dinner guests of John Karriek and wife Sunday.

Rev. Wood preached Sunday morning and night at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Ed Eichman and children of Slater are visitors this week at Will Eichman.

Mrs. W. B. Wilhelm and son Willie of the county were shoppers in town Monday.

NEW HOME

John Larue and John Harris returned home Friday after a trip to New Mexico. The latter took up a claim of 160 acres while there.

Mrs. John Knott spent Sunday with Mrs. Alvin Poe.

Misses Bessie Knott, Grace Larue Mayme Beasley and Dora Harris spent a very pleasant day with Miss Myrtle Ross Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Harris were Sunday guests of D. Lemon and family.

Misses Elizabeth and Dee Scott of the Sweet Springs neighborhood visited the Misses Dierking Sunday and Sunday night.

Mrs. Ona Carothers and daughter Irene of Sedalia visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Reager and other relatives from last Friday until Wednesday.

Arthur Mayse of Rose Valley spent Saturday night with D. M. Harris and family.

A. W. Forbes had a very pleasant surprise Tuesday, it was his 65th birthday and he was out in the field at work and when he came to dinner a crowd of relatives had assembled at his home with all kinds of good things to eat. He received several nice presents and enjoyed the surprise to the fullest extent. May he have many more happy birthdays.

The supper at New Home Saturday night was well attended and the proceeds were something near $9.00.

Misses Dollie Harris, Mayme and Dollie Dierking and Nancy Harris attended the Teacher's Association at Marshall Wednesday and Thursday.

Misses Frances Reager and Bessie Knott visited Misses Alma and Edna Kueck at Aulville a few days last week.

Mrs. Claudie McGuire and little daughter of Stokley Mo., came in Wednesday to visit relatives in Forbestown for a week or ten days.

Miss Bessie Knott entertained quite a number of her young friends Monday evening. Music and games were the enjoyments of the evening. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. All departed at a late hour reporting a nice time.

Dr. J. M. Barber has been quite sick this week.

SHACKELFORD BROS. NEW STORE

is the place to go for Groceries, Books, Stationery, School Supplies, Patent Medicines, Cutlery, Fancy Candies, Honey, Etc. We are just opening up a New Stock. Come and see us. we would like to SHOW YOU. Bring us your produce.

Jas. T. & W. E. Shackelford, NAPTON, MO